Ecclesiastical Private Trust Cover Letter (Introductory declaration of trust)

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as the formal ecclesiastical cover notice that the bearer and the instruments enclosed fall under the jurisdiction, protections, and spiritual authority of the Clements Private Trust.

This is a living, irrevocable, ecclesiastical trust formed under divine covenant, recognized by natural law and higher jurisdiction. It is not bound by corporate or statutory obligations.

All actions are taken in peace, protection, and love under the Creator's will.

Notice of Trust Status (Formal legal/equity declaration)

This is formal notice that the Clements Private Trust exists, functions, and operates under ecclesiastical and divine authority.

No other body—governmental, corporate, or religious—has dominion, claim, or enforcement authority over this trust or its members.

This trust is private, self-governing, and sovereign by spiritual and natural right.

Affidavit of Ecclesiastical Trust Standing (Statement of law, protection, and spiritual jurisdiction)

Affiant affirms the existence of the Clements Private Trust as a living ecclesiastical trust under divine covenant.

The trust is protected from all foreign, hostile, or statutory encroachment. No jurisdiction other than divine and ecclesiastical law applies.

The trust exists to protect, provide for, and shelter its members under divine peace and grace.

Spiritual Bonding Clause (Sanctified clause ensuring peace, love, and protection)

By this clause, all members of the Clements Private Trust are spiritually bound by principles of non-aggression, peace, protection, and love.

No member may act in belligerence, hostility, or malice against another member or innocent soul.

Violation of this spiritual bond is a violation of trust itself and may result in removal by ecclesiastical determination.

Certificate of Trust Membership and Protection

This certifies that the bearer is a recognized living man/woman under the Clements Private Trust.

They are under full spiritual and lawful protection of the trust.

They are not to be interfered with, trespassed upon, or coerced into any jurisdiction outside of divine law.

Notice of Vehicle Conveyance under Trust

This notice affirms that the described vehicle is held in trust under the Clements Private Trust.

The vehicle is used strictly for non-commercial, private travel under the authority and jurisdiction of the trust.

All statutory claims upon the vehicle are hereby rebutted.

Affidavit of Use – Non-Commercial Travel Protection

Affiant declares that the travel undertaken using any trust-conveyed vehicle is for private use only.

The right to travel is inherent, unalienable, and ecclesiastically protected.

This is not a commercial operation, and no license or permit is required under the ecclesiastical law.

Jurisdictional Disclaimer and Non-Consent Clause

The Clements Private Trust and its members do not consent to any legal, statutory, or administrative jurisdiction outside of divine law.

Any action, claim, or order made against the trust or its members without their explicit, knowing, and willing consent shall be deemed a trespass under ecclesiastical authority.

This notice is binding upon receipt.
